New Leadership for SDC Board

The Board of Commissioners for the Social Development Commission (SDC) has selected its new leaders.

The Board elected at their Annual Meeting Roy L. Williams as the new Chairman of the Board. He replaces Fred Royal who completed his term as Chair. Williams is the representative on the SDC Board for Milwaukee County, having served on the agency's ruling body for more than five years. As an active Board member, Williams has served on a number of planning and project committees for the agency. The SDC Board helps initiate and implement policy for SDC, the Community Action Agency for Milwaukee County.

Mr. Williams has served Milwaukee County in a number of capacities since 2006 including Corporation Counsel. He has served as an instructor at both Cardinal Stritch University and Concordia University and has been named by Milwaukee Magazine as a Rising Star among lawyers. He has served as President of the Wisconsin Association of African American Lawyers.

In addition to Mr. Williams being elected Chair at the Annual Meeting, Kristina McHenry, SDC District 1 representative, was tabbed as Vice Chair, Michelle Nate of Milwaukee Public Schools as Treasurer, Annie Wacker of the AFL-CIO as Secretary, and Bruce Bultman, of SDC District 6, as Member at Large.
