

News Article
August 23, 2011

Connecting Residents to Jobs

Area residents seeking work got the chance to talk to businesses hiring new employees at a Mini-Job Fair. The employment fair was coordinated by the W-2 program of the Social Development Commission (SDC) and held at the SDC Richards Street offices.

McCoy's Cleaning Services staff member talks to residents interested in applying for jobs with the company.

The Mini-Job Fair was the latest in a series of employment opportunities held by the SDC W-2 program. For more information on the program, visit the SDC website at www.cr-sdc.org, click on the “Programs” page and then on the link to “W-2 Training Opportunities”.

Employers talked with dozens of job seekers and took applications and resumes. Among position being sought at the event were cleaners, office workers, drivers and certified nursing assistants.

Resident talks with a Nationwide representative about possible employment at SDC W-2 Min-Job Fair.

###