W-2 Eligibility & Assessment

Emergency Assistance Homeless

Emergency Assistance provides funding to families with a child(ren) who meet all eligibility requirements including experiencing a current emergency due to homelessness, impending homelessness, energy crisis, fire, flood or natural disaster.

To be considered for Emergency Assistance (Homeless), certain eligibility requirements must be met.

An applicant must:

- Have dependent children.
- Be an American citizen or registered alien.
- Be at or below 115% the Federal Poverty Level.
- Not have assets of value more than $2,500.
- Have a current residence that is designed for providing a temporary living accommodation such as an emergency shelter facility, or other temporary or transitional living arrangement.
- Has left their current housing because it is uninhabitable as determined by an official building inspector, health department or other appropriate local authority. For this purpose, the W-2 agency is not considered an appropriate local authority.
- Lacks a fixed regular, and adequate nighttime residence.
- Living in a place that is not designed for, or ordinarily used as, a regular sleeping accommodation. Examples include public hallways, parks, bus stations, and building entrances.
