

News Article
January 17, 2012

Connecting to Employment

The W-2 Program coordinated by the Social Development Commission (SDC) helped residents who braved a winter storm get connected to jobs.

The SDC program held a Job Fair at its Richards Street facility January 17 that featured employers seeking workers for a number of positions. Residents were able to apply for jobs including bank tellers and supervisors, cash management positions,

Certified Nursing Assistants, Home

Health Aides, vocational training and paid leadership training positions. Employers represented at the Job Fair included TCF Bank, Med Group, Public Allies, and Clean Power.

TCF Bank representative (left) talks with a potential job applicant at SDC W-2 Job Fair.

The event was the latest in a series of opportunities the W-2 Program at SDC has organized to link residents to firms that are looking to hire people. In addition, attendees were also offered by program staff tips on how to best present themselves to potential employers.

For more information on the SDC W-2 Program, visit the agency website at www.cr-sdc.org, click on the “Programs” page, and then the link to the W-2 Program. Or call the W-2 Hotline at 414-326-2900.

###