

News Article
December 13, 2011
For Immediate Release
Dale Shuster 414-906-2702

Job Fair Attracts Hundreds

More than 200 hundred job seekers got the chance to talk to potential employers at a Job Fair held by the Social Development Commission (SDC) W-2 program.

The Job Fair was held at SDC Richards Street office. Employers represented at the event included Potawatomi Bingo and Casino, St. Camillius & St. Camillo, Clean Power, Outpost Foods, UWM/ Public Allies, We Energies, Argus Technical, Milwaukee Fire and Police, CareMinders, Med Group Home Care, and Job Corps.

Residents talk with a representative from Job Corps at a W-2 Job Fair at SDC Richards.

Mark Shaw of SDC W-2 provides job-finding tips to residents attending the Job Fair.

present oneself to a potential employer, and how to follow up on contacts made at events like the Job Fair.

Prior to meeting with employer representatives, those attending the Job Fair attended mini-workshops that provided tips on how best to increase their chances of being hired. Information was provided on preparing resumes, how to research companies present at job fairs ahead of time, how to best

The Job Fair was the latest in a series of events organized by the W-2 program at SDC. For more information on the program, visit the SDC website at www.cr-sdc.org, click on the “Programs” page and then on the link for W-2. Or call 414-326-2900.

###

A resident talks with a representative from St. Camillus/St. Camillo about potential employment.